CALL TO ACTION MAKE YOUR VOICE HEARD

Let the City of San José know how important the San José Public Library is to you, your family, and our community. By the March 15 City Council meeting, urge them to fully restore the Library's open hours. There are two ways to let your voice be heard:

IT'S SIMPLE:

#1: Contact the Mayor & City Council. Helpful talking points and contact info can be found by clicking below.

#2: Make your views known at the upcoming public hearing on the Mayor's budget message (agenda item 3.3), which will be part of the March 15 City Council meeting: San José City Hall, 200 E. Santa Clara Street, San Jose, 95113, 1:30 pm. The public hearing portion of the meeting will most likely take place later in the afternoon or early evening.

Attend the Zoom meeting and make live public comments at <https://sanjoseca.zoom.us/j/99346843938>

If you can't make it to the meeting, you can leave an e-comment on the agenda at the link below.

SUPPORT YOUR LIBRARY

The San José Public Library Foundation was established 35 years ago to provide critical supportive funding to the San José Public Library, our community's lifelong learning hub.

Because of you, we have come a long way in ensuring that all members of our culturally-diverse community have equal access to places where they can learn, create, collaborate, innovate, and explore.

Please help us continue to make a difference.
