ROBERT DUGONI

DEAR COMMUNITY
PARTNER,

At the San José Public Library Foundation, we believe that free access to education, literacy, and resources can transform lives. This year, we are thrilled to host our 3rd Annual Signature Author Event featuring New York Times and #1 Amazon bestselling author Robert Dugoni.

While our libraries serve more than 100,000 San José residents each year, local public funding covers only the essentials. In fact, San José currently ranks 26th out of 30 Bay Area library systems in per capita funding. Your sponsorship directly addresses this gap, providing vital resources that ensure our city is as equitable as it is diverse.

We invite you to explore the sponsorship opportunities attached and are excited to work with you to tailor a sponsorship package that aligns with your organization's goals. To discuss how we can build an impactful partnership together, please contact us at development@sjplf.org or (408) 808-2081.

Thank you for your leadership and support.

With gratitude for your partnership,

Kat Cloud
Chief Development Officer
San José Public Library Foundation
